RULES FOR ROVERS READIES PRIZE DRAW CLUB

1. An entry in the competition is valid only if the subscription has been paid for the appropriate week's draw. The entry must be correctly marked as "paid" for the appropriate week's draw in the society's records at the club's offices at the time of the draw.
2. It is the responsibility of members to ensure that the correct name and address has been recorded against their membership and reference numbers and that their agent has recorded their entry as "paid" for the appropriate week's draw.
3. An entry not correctly marked, or left unmarked, will count as unsold and cannot win a prize.
4. Each member will be issued with a prefix letter and five separate four digit numbers. To win a major prize, the member's prefix letter and number must match exactly the winning number drawn (digits must be in the same order), while consolation prizes may be won by members with the same number but a different prefix letter as the major prizes drawn that week.
5. All members must be registered by name and address; nom-de-plumes will not be accepted.
6. All prefixes and numbers are issued by the promoter, on behalf of the society. Any alteration of prefixes or numbers shown on membership cards will be considered void.
7. All prizes will be paid direct to winners unless alternative arrangements have been made. A result sheet showing winning entries will be published each week and winning numbers can also be found at www.rovers.co.uk or in the subsequent matchday programme. No responsibility can be accepted for any error, misprint or omission and the official winners list will be available for inspection at the society's offices at Ewood Park, Nuttall Street, Blackburn, BB2 4JF.
8. The draw will be made each week at a time and place arranged by the society. This will be the date of the lottery (as defined in the 1976 Lotteries and Amusements Act) and details of the winners will be announced on a daily basis during the week following the draw. All members may, if they wish, attend the draw and may be invited to participate in the draw.
